Our next YOUNG LADIES' MITZVAH CLUB will meet Sunday, January 15th (new date)

(3:30 pm - 5:00 pm)

We looked at the "HOW" of kashrut & its related mitzvot...Now, let's take a look at "WHY"

We've been discussing specific mitzvot to do with kashrut, now we want to understand their meaning and importance! For example:

- ~ What is the significance of a kosher animal having split hooves?
- ~ Why do we eat chicken, and what about most other types of bird?

Then we will create THREE different kinds of cholent : Ashkenazic, Sepahrdic, and Vegetarian, followed by delicious sweet snacks.

Looking forward to a yummy discussion!!

The YOUNG LADIES' MITZVAH CLUB'S mission is to inspire a generation of Jewish girls to become confident, smart, thoughtful women through Jewish experiences that promote friendship, life lessons and Torah study. The YLMC is open to girls in 5th-8th grades.

Money Matters: Wisdom of the Ages on Today's Economic Crisis

6 Wednesday evenings, starting Jan. 25, 7:30-9:00 pm at the Lori Schottenstein Chabad Center

(course also available Mondays 7:15-9:00 pm at the Columbus Jewish Foundation)

MONEY MATTERS will present Judaism's approach to practical economic dilemmas and monetary quandaries that we face daily in both our personal and professional lives.

The goal of this course is to provide a sensitive, fair, and unshakable economic paradigm grounded in 3,000 years of tradition and practical experience-an ancient yet fresh spin on how we view ethics of money.

Students will emerge from this course with an understanding that only a divine economic system can ensure unequivocal justice while recognizing the virtue in each stakeholder's position. Money Matters will show how the Torah's sharply discerning yet holistic rulings inspire us with the confidence to confront any ethical economic dilemma.
