

Dear Ellie,

What a great feeling it was to see hundreds and hundreds of my dearest friends celebrating the high holidays together with me. It was a time for reflection, prayer and finding meaning. Davening as a community helps us feel united and connected. I know that I felt so embraced by all of you and I hope you continue to make Chabad your home throughout the year. I invite you to continue the high holiday inspiration by joining us for the Sukkot celebration this Thursday or for Simchat Torah. Please do not hesitate to call me or stop by any time to say hello. Our doors are always open to you.

With much warmth,

Areyah Kaltmann

Benefit Friendship Circle and try exciting new Israeli wines!

Open House Sunday, October 14, 4-7 pm

Click to download a larger pdf of this map

Special Israeli wine tasting benefitting Friendship Circle on Sunday, Oct 14 at the Lori Schottenstein Chabad Center

You won't be able to sample or purchase these wines anywhere else in Ohio - this is an exclusive event! For only $36 per couple ($18 per person), you can sample up to 10 Israeli wines and enjoy light appetizers supplied by Sher Bliss Wine and Chocolate catering.

We will have exciting raffle tickets to purchase too!

It's a 4-7 Open House, so come after soccer, or before your family dinner, and enjoy this exciting event sampling wines that are from Israel, one of the world's foremost emerging viticulture regions.

All proceeds benefit the Friendship Circle program and will allow Cheryl Sher to represent Friendship Circle in the New York Marathon on November 4.

Wines will be available for purchase; 5% of purchases will go to Friendship Circle. You will be able to pick up your wine at Sher Bliss in Gahanna on Thursday 10/18, or in Bexley at the JCC.

Friendship Circle is an outreach of the Lori Schottenstein Chabad Center
