This week at The Lori Schottenstein Chabad Center

Our own Leilah Abelman attended the international C-teen shabbaton in New York City and had a fabulous time. Stay tuned for next year's Shabbaton open to all high school teens.

Esther Kaltmann was in New York City earlier this month, attending the International Conference of Chabad-Lubavitch Women Emissaries. Over 2900 Chabad women from all over the world met for 5 days of inspiration and networking!

A heartfelt refuah shlaima to Marcie Gilbert!

Volunteers needed to make LifeTown a success!
If you can give as little as two hours a week, you can make a lasting difference in the life of a child with disabilities. Volunteers play the roles of merchants in our venues, helping children learn life skills.

Come to the Pet Place and meet our new Diamond Doves! (they come from Australia) Rochel and Leilah Abelman have been working with them and have named them "Vashti" (from the Purim story, because "she wouldn't come to me"); "Jonah" which means "dove" in Hebrew, and "Dodo" since she looks like the Indian Ocean/Australian Dodo bird!!

If you would like to volunteer, call or email Cheryl Sher at 774-3403 to schedule. We are in session almost every day, so we are in great need of volunteers.
For more info about the LifeTown program, visit www.lifetowncolumbus.org.

"My kids have spent the past two summers at Gan Israel enjoying all the wonderful activities and field trips. In addition to loving the activities, they've made great friends and enhanced their appreciation of Judaism. The best though - are the counselors who are very energetic and incredible with the kids."
