

Father of One of Paris Victims Shares His Memories and Pain

Dear Ellie,
 Rabbi Binyamin Hattab, father of one of the Paris victims, penned a letter urging mitzvos in memory of the slain terror victims. Because of Yoav's special love for Shabbos, he is specifically encouraging greater observance of many of the aspects of Shabbos, including Shabbos Candles, going to shul and more.

פרשת שבוע

Parshat Va'eira

G-d reveals Himself to Moses. He promises the "four expressions of redemption." He promises to take out the Children of Israel from Egypt, deliver them from their enslavement, redeem them, and acquire them as His own chosen people at Mount Sinai; He will then bring them to the land He promised the Patriarchs as their eternal heritage.
Moses and Aaron repeatedly before Pharaoh to demand in the name of G-d, "Let My people go, so that they may serve Me in the wilderness." Pharaoh repeatedly refuses. Aaron's staff turns into a snake and swallows the magic sticks of the Egyptian sorcerers. G-d then sends a number of plagues upon the Egyptians:
 The waters of the Nile turn to blood; swarms of frogs overrun the land; lice infest all men and beasts. Hundreds of wild animals invade the cities; a pestilence kills the domestic animals; painful boils afflict the Egyptians. For the seventh plague, fire and ice combine to descend from the skies as a devastating hail. Still, "the heart of Pharaoh was hardened and he would not let the children of Israel go, as G-d had said to Moses."

DEBATE THE LIFE-MESSAGES OF HOLLYWOOD'S MOST POPULAR BOX-OFFICE FILMS

JLI TEENS DISCOVERY PROGRAM HOLLYWOOD IDOL Starts Feb. 8 REGISTER

Hollywood Idol analyzes how the culture of Hollywood subliminally influences our society. From dystopian societies in which evil governments force inhabitants into fighting, to heroic romances between defiant teen heroes struggling for their freedom, students will discover how every movie-every story-is inherently a message and commentary on life. They will be challenged to consider and think deeply about these messages, whether they really agree with them, and how these values compare with those of our tradition.

SOULMATES
ROSH CHODESH Soulmates - Jewish Secrets to Meaningful Relationships
Lesson 3 - Wednesday, Jan. 21
Beloved Friends
 Synergizing and Sanctifying Love and Desire
 We all start out long-term, but is "passionate marriage" realistic in the start-er? How can one relationship give us the comforting security we crave from commitment as well as the spark of novelty and mystique that fuels desire? The mitzvah of taharat hamishpachah, or "family purity," has long been shrouded in mystery and misconception. Yet these laws may hold the secret to synchronizing—and sanctifying—these paradoxical aspects of marriage, while also revealing an unparalleled connection between us and G-d.

Moses to G-d: Why Have You Caused Them Evil?
 Last week's Parshah concluded with the epochal exchange between Moses and G-d over the mystery of human suffering, in which Moses protested, "My G-d, why have You done evil to this people?" The opening verses of this week's Parsha contain -- we assume -- G-d's response. What does He say?
