

Dear Ellie,

Tomorrow we begin the month of Nissan, in which we celebrate the holiday of Passover. Quite appropriately, the word "Nissan" is linked to the Hebrew word for miracles. Our exodus from Egypt was quite a miracle – as is the fact that spring is finally coming to the Northern Hemisphere.

What exactly is a miracle? If G-d took us out of Egypt, and G-d makes the sun rise, why is the former considered miraculous and the latter a run-of-the-mill natural occurrence? The answer, of course, is frequency. We were taken out of Egypt but once, while the sun rises every day. Both are G-d's kindness, but only rare occurrences are considered miraculous.

This has got me thinking. We can all make miracles. Find a mitzvah you very rarely do (if ever), and do it. That will be a man-made miracle. How's that for a good way to get the season of miracles rolling?

Shabbat Shalom,
Areyah

פרשת השבוע

Parshat Vayikra

G-d calls to Moses from the Tent of Meeting, and communicates to him the laws of the korbanot, the animal and meal offerings brought in the Sanctuary. These include:

- The "ascending offering" (olah) that is wholly raised to G-d by the fire atop the altar;
- Five varieties of "meal offering" (minchah) prepared with fine flour, olive oil and frankincense;
- The "peace offering" (shelamim), whose meat was eaten by the one bringing the offering, after parts are burned on the altar and parts are given to the kohanim (priests);
- The different types of "sin offerings" (chatat) brought to atone for transgressions committed erroneously by the high priest, the entire community, the king or the ordinary Jew;
- The "guilt offering" (asham) brought by one who has misappropriated property of the Sanctuary, who is in doubt as to whether he transgressed a divine prohibition, or who has committed a "betrayal against G-d" by swearing falsely to defraud a fellow man.

JLI TEENS DISCOVERY PROGRAM
HOLLYWOOD IDOL

Sunday is the concluding class of this series - next class is coming soon!

Hollywood Idol analyzes how the culture of Hollywood subliminally influences our society. From dystopian societies in which evil governments force inhabitants into districts, to heroic romances between defiant teen heroes fighting for their freedom, students will discover how every movie-every story-is inherently a message and commentary on life. They will be challenged to consider and think deeply about these messages, whether they really agree with them, and how these values compare with those of our tradition.

Sundays 3:00-4:30

SOULMATES

ROSH CHODESH
Soulmates – Jewish Secrets to Meaningful Relationships

Next Lesson - Monday, April 20
"Sacred Space"

Romantics of all ages have waxed poetic on the notion of "soulmates," seeking to grasp what makes love and passion so potent, what drives the inexplicable magnetism between two people, and what makes true love last. Yet millennia of Jewish text and tradition are rich with insights on this very topic, from the mystical and spiritual to the no-nonsense and practical.

Course synopsis by chapters here.

Upcoming classes:

Monday, April 20 - "Sacred Space"

Tuesday, May 19 - "Becoming a Better Hal"

Classes are from 12:00 - 1:00 pm. Gourmet lunch will be served.

Cost: $105 registration for entire year includes textbook; or $20 per individual class.
